

and

request the pleasure of your company to celebrate the Grand Reopening of William J. (Billy Joe) Rish Park

Thursday, February 18, 2010
4:00 PM Central Time

William J. Rish Recreational Park
6773 Cape San Blas Road
Cape San Blas, Florida (about 2 1/2 hours from Tallahassee)

This 100-acre park is reopening now that an extensive renovation project has been completed. It provides access to the Gulf of Mexico, St. Joseph Bay, an Olympic-size swimming pool, and much more, for people with disabilities. Owned and operated by APD, the park is open to all people with disabilities and their families.

Attire: Beach Friendly

If you require an accommodation, please request it by Feb. 11. E-mail

Gwen.Reed@apd.state.fl.us or Beth.Basford@apd.state.fl.us or call Beth Basford or Gwen Reed at (850) 482-9210.

Rish Park is located in Florida's Panhandle on the St. Joseph Peninsula, 30 miles west of Apalachicola and 15 miles around St. Joseph Bay from Port St. Joe. Take Highway 98 to State Road 30, then take State Road 30-E, which is Cape San Blas Road. The park's address is 6773 Cape San Blas Road.

Hot dogs, chips and beverages provided by the Florida Disabled Outdoors Association